Apologies, as I am preparing myself for todays directions hearing I have discovered that I have not read the attendance advice correctly.

I was of the belief that I was going to be called as my number is listed next to the respondent but on re-reading the form, I now understand that I had to sign this form and return 5 days prior to today. I have not done this.

This was an oversight on my part & I apologize to the tribunal for this.

I have been busy covering staff shortages due to Covid and this morning is my planned time to prepare for this matter.

Given this is a directions hearing around the issue raised by the applicant of alleged contempt, can I clearly state for the record, I have never knowingly made a false claim to QCAT on any submission by myself and everything I have submitted under my hand is my truth.

Again, apologies.

Your Faithfully,
